GUESTS: Andreas Plonka, Marla Tinklepaugh, Christine Gow, Dennis Gow, Devan Sieben, Lillian Senko

MOTION: By Chrissy Vinsko, second by Rose Hendrickson to approve the agenda. All were in favor, Motion carried.

PUBLIC COMMENT: Discussion was held on the possibility of bringing the trains that are located on the old tracks in front of the Plonka's residence to the park for display and to honor the town's history. There are liability and costs issues that need to be looked into but the costs involved would most likely be a deterrent factor.

Doug Arthur had complaints about the handling of his property located at 1390 Main Street and feels he has been treated unfairly. Council assured him it he was not and it remains a safety issue that needs to be addressed properly and Mr. Arther needs to continue to abide by the direction and procedure of Northeast Inspection Consultants who is the borough's third-party Codes contracting agency.
